Associate Membership Form

An Associate Member is a company or individual that supports the DTASC mission statement:
It is our mission to create a network in which theatre educators and students can effectively communicate ideas, share resources, workshops, and showcase their theatre skills. We believe in creating an environment that fosters the best in educational theatre through performance opportunities, diversity, and professional adjudication. We support and reward hard work, and commitment to the discipline of theatre and education.

The cost for Associate membership is $75.00 to be paid annually before the Fall General Meeting of the current year. There is a maximum of one Associate member for each company. Meeting and festival dates are on the DTASC website.

Membership Requirements/Benefits

Membership extends from Fall General Meeting to the day before the next Fall General Meeting.

For the term of year paid membership the following offers will be available:

- An associate company representative may make a brief 3 minute presentation to DTASC members at the Fall and Winter annual meetings for approximately 120 middle/high school theatre educators.
- An associate member who attends the Fall General meeting may bring 100 brochures or mail them to the DTASC membership secretary, who will display them at the meeting. Email the membership secretary to arrange this.
- An associate company's name, logo and website will be displayed on a page of Associate Members on the DTASC website. The company may add a couple of lines explaining their mission or value to DTASC members.
- For a fee of $50 per season (Fall/Spring), an associate company may set up a table at all DTASC student festivals throughout the academic year and distribute information to participating students.
- An associate company may purchase an ad for the Fall Festival program booklets and for the Shakespeare Festival program booklet(s) at the same price as for the teachers. See section D5 of the DTASC handbook online for ad sizes, prices and deadlines.
- An associate company's representative may judge at the annual DTASC festival.
- An associate company's flyers/catalogues will be distributed to new DTASC members throughout the year of current associate membership.
