The Mario Lomeli Scholarship

The Mario Lomeli Scholarship is given to high school seniors who are majoring or minoring in Theatre in their post secondary education and have participated in CETA South and DTASC festivals during their junior and/or senior year in high school.

To be eligible for the scholarship a student must:

- be a senior in high school
- be involved in his/her school theatre department's activities during his/her junior and senior years
- declare a major or minor in Theatre Arts for the applicant's freshman year at a college, university or conservatory
- have participated during his/her junior or senior year of high school in one Fall or one Spring DTASC Festival and one CETA Southern Region Festival
- have successfully completed all courses in his/her junior and senior years with no grade lower than a "C"

The Mario Lomeli scholarship audition happens concurrently with the DTASC scholarship auditions.

If you would like to be reminded about the deadline for this scholarship opportunity:

- please send an email to Kathleen Switzer at kmswitzer@earthlink.net.
- in the subject line of the email, please write "Lomeli Scholarship Reminder"
- in the body of the email, include your name, school, and email address.

You will be added to a database and, as the deadline approaches, you will receive a reminder about completing the forms for this scholarship.

When you get the reminder:

- download the application and complete it
- mail the application by the deadline, including all necessary documents
- audition on the scheduled day
