

MARIO LOMELI (1931 – 1997)

Mario Lomeli was a long-time, active devoted member of CETA-South (then known as SCETA) and DTASC. He served on the SCETA Advisory Council and for many years served as treasurer of DTASC.

He was noted for being an outstanding theatre educator; musicals were his specialty. He taught at Audubon Junior High School and University High School in Los Angeles. For several summers he was director of the All-City Drama/Music Workshop which was held at Roosevelt High School. Upon retiring, he taught Readers Theatre at the Emeritus College at Santa Monica City College.

Mario always had a ready smile and was a kind, gentle, loyal man, deeply loved, admired and respected by his colleagues, students friends and family. He loved musicals and cherished his time attending and producing theatre.

In his memory a scholarship has been created for an outstanding student participant of the CETA-South and DTASC Festivals.

LOMELI SCHOLARSHIP

Students who wish to apply for the scholarship should fill out the forms on the next four pages. Deadlines and submission location are the same as for the DTASC scholarships.
